

GSA Committee Representative Report

Reports shall be due by the last day of the academic quarter to VP of Budget and Finance. Stipends shall be paid within thirty calendar days of receipt of the report.

Academic Year	2009-2010
Full name
Committee served on
Dates of the meetings this quarter
Number of total hours served for the qtr including details about how time was spent
Mailing address
Social Security Number (this is needed to write a check to you)

Attaching additional sheets, please describe the following:

- action items discussed at the meetings
- how you voted or your opinion of those issues
- any information you think is relevant to graduate students
- what the committee will be addressing in future meetings

You should log the dates of all meetings and/or committee-related work and the number of hours associated with each date. Next to each date you should list short bullet point descriptions of activities (reading files, meeting, etc.), followed by narrative description as you deem necessary. The sum of these hours should correlate with the number of total hours as listed above. Finally, please understand that your report (minus your personal info and your SSN) will be posted for public perusal in the GSA Lounge and on the GSA website.

The quarterly stipend for serving as a GSA Committee Representative is the following:
